

Bad Hofgastein, March 2013

16th European Health Forum Gastein 2013
Young Forum Gastein Scholarship

Dear Madam or Sir,

As Health Attaché of your country we would kindly like to invite you to nominate a young health policy-maker of your country for the Young Forum Gastein Scholarship, a joint initiative of the European Health Form Gastein (EHFG) and the European Commission (DG Health and Consumers, DG Communications Networks, Content & Technology and DG Research & Innovation).

The Young Gastein scholars will receive a unique opportunity to participate and network at the European Health Forum Gastein 2013, an annual conference bringing together politicians, decision-makers and representatives of interest groups as well as other experts in the field of public health. The EHFG 2013 will take place from 2nd - 5th October in Bad Hofgastein, Austria, with the Young Gastein programme activities commencing on the 1st October.

We would be grateful to receive the name and contact details of your nominee by Friday 3rd May 2013 (Louise.Boyle@ehfg.org).

Please find attached detailed information about the requirements for participating and the documents to be submitted by the nominee in order to apply for the scholarship.

Your support in bringing the future health decision-makers of your country to Gastein will be highly appreciated.

Yours sincerely,

A handwritten signature in black ink that reads 'H. Brand'.

Prof. Dr. Helmut Brand
President European Health Forum Gastein
